

Surgical Strike Day Celebration

(30th September 2018)

Surgical Strike Day was celebrated in our college on 30th September 2018 to mark the second anniversary of the surgical strike carried out by the Army's Special Forces across the Line of Control (LoC) in Pakistan-administered Kashmir (PoK) to destroy terror launch pads. This day was also marked to remember sacrifice of soldiers during 'Uri incident.

Indian Army had carried out surgical strike on the night of 28-29 September 2016 in Pakistan Occupied Kashmir (PoK), 11 days after the Uri attack. It was carried out by Para (Special Forces), commonly known as Para SF, is the special force unit of the Indian Army's Parachute Regiments. The four hour surgical strike had inflicted heavy casualties on terrorists along with those protecting them, sending across message of change of stand on rules of engagement on the disputed Line of Control (LoC). The strike was conducted to prevent terrorist who were prepping to infiltrate and attack the Kashmir region and metros. It was claimed to be first-of-its-kind strike across the Pakistani border was based on specific intelligence reports.

On the occasion of this day Captain Yashwant Kadam delivered a seminar on surgical strike. He explains in detail why surgical strike is carried out & how to complete it successfully. After he guided our students about various opportunities in engineering services. Finally Principal Dr. M. M. Bhagwat appeals to all students to give various exams of Indian army & do their career in Indian army.

Mr. Belekar R. D., Mrs. Parulekar V. V. & NSS Volunteers have taken great efforts to conduct programme smoothly.
